

Medical Biotechnology FAQs for foreign students

When do the courses start?

The first semester starts on the first Monday of October. The second semester on the first Monday of March. In any case, we strongly recommend arriving in Italy at least 15 days in advance to carry out all the necessary paperwork.

How can I find accommodation?

Federico II University offers support through its Welcome Desk, all information can be consulted at this link: <http://www.international.unina.it/welcome-desk/>

How can I get a scholarship?

The Federico II University does not directly provide scholarships. The regional agency Adisurc takes care of them. All the information is on the website (in English): <https://www.adisurcampania.it/scholarships>

How can I reach the Faculty of Biotechnology?

The best way to reach the Faculty of Biotechnology is the subway (Line 1). The "Policlinico" stop is a five-minute walk away. The Faculty of Biotechnology can also be reached by bus from the city center.

Where is the faculty located and what is the email address?

The address is: Via Tommaso De Amicis, 95, 80131 Naples NA

The email is: segrescienzebio@unina.it

How much does it cost each academic year?

Non-EU students will pay only a single tax of 16 euros and a regional tax of 140 euros. The Boel can be collected in person at the Secretary office and must be paid at the bank.

Do I have to bring the Permit of Stay to the Secretary?

Yes, as soon as possible. The secretary is located at the ground floor of the Biotechnology building (CESTEV) and it is open to the public each day from 9 to 13, and also on Tuesday and Thursday from 14 to 16.

How do I get the tax code?

It is not provided by the Federico II University but by the Questura when the application for the residence permit is presented. The International welcome desk may help you in obtaining the Fiscal code.

Where can I find information about the classrooms?

Each semester, the courses schedule with the relative classrooms is published on the Biotechnology website: <http://www.scienzebiotecnologiche.unina.it/dru/mediche>

We also suggest you to download the student's guide available on the website.

Where can I find the course program?

On professors' website pages. Here the link to search by professor's name: <https://www.docenti.unina.it/#!/search>

Is there a page dedicated to foreign students?

Yes, available here:

<https://www.international.unina.it/admission-regulation/>

Does Federico II hold Italian language courses?

Yes, each activity is managed by the Centro Linguistico di Ateneo (CLA).

Reference link: <https://www.cla.unina.it/home>

Address: Via Mezzocannone 8, Naples

How can I get insitutional email and credentials?

To get the Unina email you must be enrolled. Once you have received your student number, it will be the responsibility of the Secretary (for example if you are an Erasmus student the office is "Ufficio Erasmus e Mobilità internazionale") to request the activation procedure through a form to be sent to the CSI: you will receive the instructions with the PUK to activate it directly on your personal email. If you are an international student enrolled in Federico II university, you have to contact international@unina.it